TO ORDER ON LINE: More and more customers are realizing the convenience of ordering their pet food and supplies online. If you'd like to be notified about upcoming delivery dates this way, just send your email address to (Walt@petchefreno.com). Then, you'll get an email notice about 4-5 days before the schedule delivery date, along with a newsletter that includes directions for ordering. It's not only easy and convenient, it saves time too!

NEW PET CHEF CANNED DOG FOOD: We have a new Pet Chef Express private label canned dog food. This "Super Premium Gold" Dog Food from Evanger's comes in two varieties; Cooked Chicken (whole dressed chicken, chicken both, and chicken liver), or Beef with Chicken (beef, whole dressed chicken, chicken broth and beef liver). Prices will remain at just .99 per can, or $23.76 per case. Remember, you can order as much or as little as needed. The texture (pate), and quality is the same as the previous canned food. The change was necessary because the previous supplier's new minimum order requirements were out of reach for all Pet Chefs.

PRICE INCREASE: Pet Chef of Reno wants to provide customers with a quality food for the best price. To date, there has been three price increases from our dry pet food manufacturer since last year. So, we weighed the decision on pricing very carefully. Upon reviewing current transportation costs, higher prices for ingredients, etc., we feel that it is necessary to increase the price of our dry pet food by .10 per pound, effective June 15th. This will allow customers to continue receiving premium quality pet food at a good price, along with the free home delivery service.

POOPER SCOOPER: Hanly's Hounds will clean up those backyard droppings for just $8.25 per week. PET PAL OF THE MONTH

When Bobby (an autistic child) has a rough day, he takes his best friend Toby, a Golden Retriever Mix, into the backyard and they sit together so Bobby can tell the dog everything that happened. Toby doesn't mind this because his favorite place to be is with Bobby, always.

Bobby, his sister and father were recently gone for a week. When his mother came home from work each day, the dog would rush down the hall looking for Bobby. He'd search each room, then sigh and lay down in the hallway. Needless to say, when Bobby returned home, Toby was constantly by his side. The family always knows where Bobby is because Toby isn't too far away.

Toby, now 15 yrs old, was acquired from the pound. (A big "Thank You" to the Kahn family, customers since 2001, for submitting this great story about a special dog. Toby will be receiving a squeaker toy with the next pet food delivery in June.)
